

Brief about GENSA

Gender and Equity Network South Asia, GENSA www.gendernetwork.org was initiated in June 2020 to promote an equity and gender lens in evaluations and particularly give voice to the special challenges in addressing these issues in South Asia. GENSA is committed to building knowledge, thought leadership and alliances that strengthen the Global South's contribution to the global evaluation dialogue. It is the only such network in South Asia with a rapidly expanding membership from India, Bangladesh, Nepal, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Sri Lanka, Bhutan and Maldives. Its vision is "Evaluation for a just and equitable society" and mission: Enhancing high quality evaluation and its use in South Asia - through improved gender and equity related capacities, generating and sharing knowledge and building networks. It coordinates with EvalGender+ globally and is a special interest group of the regional VOPE Community of Evaluators – South Asia (COE SA).
